

LEVEL BREAKDOWN

Project: Duel 09
Last Mod: 26-Sep-07
Doc: Michael How

Type

Duel
Ahsoka vs Asajj

Environment

Illum System: Illum was the ice planet home to many of the Adegan crystals used in the construction of Jedi light sabers. The caverns containing the crystals were long ago turned into a Jedi temple. The landscape is dotted with towering ice mountains and treacherous caverns.

Tone

Both Jedi are relatively young and it is shown in the mistakes they make and the way they sometimes rush fool hardily into battle. Asajj, desperate to earn respect and favour from Dooku is determined as ever, visibly angry and violent. Ahsoka is keen to impress Anakin and is just as determined to earn her masters favour, although her attitude is more cool and calculated with the occasional rookie mistake. No anger is shown but cockiness and attitude is displayed in her fighting.

Features

- Collapsing ice pillars
- Crevices
- Falling Ice Spikes

Goals

Overall

- Retrieve Data From Assaj Detailing the New Hologram Fighter Schematic.

Set 1

- Push Asajj backwards along the treacherous ice pillars till you have her cornered against a crevice

Set 2

- Cut the ice crystal down onto Asajj to pin her to the floor and retrieve the Data.

Set 3

- Cause an avalanche of ice by severing 3 main ice supports in the large cavern to bury Assaj

Actions

- Force-Leaping between Ice platforms.
- Force Breaking Ice Crystals Hanging from the ceiling.
- Exploiting the weaknesses in the ice to try collapse platform with saber down thrusts.
- Throwing the saber.

Area Outline

Set 1

- 1A: Crevice covered, shifting dangerous snow littered Ice Shelf.
- 2A: The cracks emit a ghostly blue colour and rugged sharp spikes dot ice walls, plummeting away into blackness.
- 3A: Gaps increase between platforms forcing the players to force jump to follow their quarry.
- 4A: Finalizing on a larger platform at the edge of the ice platform with formidable ice mountains as a backdrop.

Set 2

- 1A: Caverns below the ice shelf, passages and holes branching off in all directions.
- 2A: Icicles hang hazardously from the arches of these great halls, spelling impending doom for those beneath one that falls.
- 3A: Gorgodons have made a home among this deep ice cavern and their snow covered forms are seen dashing past. They certainly look formidable and an encounter may prove fatal, even for a Jedi.
- 4A: Opens into large a cavern once the players have brawled through the close quarter hallways of ice.

Set 3

- 1A: From the close quarters corridors the brawl arrives in an open cavern enormous in scope and size.
- 2A: Ethereal rock pools of blue with strange aquatic life cluster at the base of stalagmites in the imposing large area.
- 3A: Stalactites cluster the ceiling in places and shake with the clash of sabers and boots.
- 4.A A Gorgodon cave in the corner is an unpleasant sight littered with humans skulls as well as the bones of other unfortunate animals. Maybe a power up or two as well...

Transitions

Set 1

- Your saber lands flush with Assaj's arm and cuts into it. She screams and recoils dropping her saber nearby and Ahsoka closes the distance between them pointing the saber at her neck.
- Despite seemingly defeated, Assaj seems defiant in the face of defeat and grins boldly.
- Ahsoka undeterred tells her as ordered by the Jedi counsel she is under arrest.
- The saber glows brightly to Assag's left and a crack emits from it in the ice.
- The platform breaks up and rocks violently. The saber rockets to Assag's hand and she strikes Ahsoka's saber away.
- There sabers clash one more time before the whole platform tilts then begins to plummet downwards like a house of cards meeting its doom.

Set 2

- Ahsoka force throws her saber through an ice spike above Assaj and impales her cloak and side underneath the ice spear. She screams and goes to strike just as a boot comes down on her free arm while her saber is kicked away with a clatter.
- "The plans, Sith scum!" exclaims Ahsoka. The Sith spits at her. Ahsoka Slices another spike off the wall next to her and spears it through the Siths free arm. The Sith screams and start cursing her.

- Ahsoka, moving freely now, searches the Siths body and quickly finds the data disk and the schematics within.
- The Sith works at the spike while the Jedi searches her, using force pull. As Ahsoka stands the spear flies past her head, missing by a fraction.
- Ahsoka activates her saber and stops Assaj's slicing into her legs. Assaj cuts the holding spike and rises to her feet. "It ends Now Jedi! She screams while rushing Ahsoka.

Set 3

- The 3rd support is severed and crumples to the ground, a large rumbling sound echoes round the room.
- The room starts to come down section by section, chasing both jedi like a runaway rhino.
- Ice spears slams down to the left and right of both jedi. Ahsoka has the lead.
- Ahsoka reaches the cavern doorway just in time and Assaj is engulfed in white plumes of ice and snow
- The clouds of white particles clear and the room is blocked in and there is no sign of the sith.
- "Now to figure a way out of here" Ahsoka says as she wanders off into the labyrinth of corridors and caves deep in the ice shelf of Ilum.
